Bombay-1, the 7th May 1965

No. ED. DPPR.5630/MRC.95-65—In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 45K of the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934, and in supersession of its directive Ref. No. ED.DME.1062/MRC.95-64, dated May 14, 1964, the Reserve Bank of India hereby directs that every company, other than a banking company or a company which is exempted from this directive under clause 2 herein, shall in relation to or in connection with any deposits, whether from its share-holders or from any other person or party, received by such company on or after 31st March 1962 or any such deposits received by it and are outstanding on or at any time after 31st March 1962, furnish information and particulars in the form annexed hereto and as specified therein. The Reserve Bank of India further directs that the said forms duly completed and signed be furnished and continue to be furnished half yearly as indicated in the said forms to the Director, Division of Publications and Press Relations, Economic Department, Reserve Bank of India, Post Box No. 1036, Bombay-1, not later than the date specified in the relative form.

2. The directions contained herein do not apply to—

- companies in which not less than fifty-one per cent of the paid-up share capital is held by the Central Government or by any State Government or Governments or partly by the Central Government and partly by one or more State Governments;
- companies which are financial institutions within the meaning of clause 3(b) herein;
- companies limited by guarantee; and
- companies not working for profit, such as those formed for promoting art, science, religion, charity, etc.

3. For the purposes of this order—

- "company" means a company as defined in Section 3 of the Companies Act, 1956 and includes a foreign company within the meaning of Section 591 of that Act;
- "financial institution" means a company—
 - which carries on as its business or part of its business the financing, whether by way of making loans or advances or otherwise, of trade, industry, commerce or agriculture; or
 - which carries on as its business or part of its business the acquisition of shares, stocks, bonds, debentures or debenture stock or securities issued by a Government or local authority or other marketable securities of like nature; or
 - which carries on as its principal business hire-purchase transactions or the financing of such transactions.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. This return is required to be submitted by companies which have accepted deposits on or after 31st March 1962 or which have deposits outstanding on or at any time after 31st March 1962. A company which has accepted deposits on or after 31st March 1962 but has no deposits outstanding as on the date of the relative return should submit a 'nil' return.

2. For the purpose of this return, deposits include deposits received against deposit receipt or otherwise. They relate to money accepted from any party but exclude loans raised or obtained upon terms involving the issue of debentures, promissory notes or other securities and subscriptions in respect of shares and debentures (including calls received in advance) offered by the company, funds received from employees, agents, etc. by way of security deposits, advances received against orders for goods and services, and trade and other liabilities.

3. In part A of the return, the number of accounts of deposits should be given in full while the amount of deposits should be rounded to the nearest thousand and three zeros omitted. Thus, if the amount of deposits is Rs. 4,560, it should be shown as 5 and not as 4.6 or 5,000.

4. In part B of the return, the usual rate of interest means the rate of interest paid on the majority of the accounts or on the accounts in which major part of the deposits are held. Brokerage paid for obtaining deposits should not be included in the rate of interest but should be indicated in a footnote at the end of the table.

5. While giving the usual rate of interest in part B of the return please mention in the 'remarks' column the special terms, if any, for large amounts of deposits or for deposits at call or short notice or for deposits for longer periods.

6. The return should be submitted and continue to be submitted periodically in relation to the position as on March 31 and September 30 each year. The returns showing the position as on March 31, 1965 should be submitted not later than June 15, 1965. The subsequent returns should be submitted not later than one month from the date to which they relate.

Where a company has, on or before the April 30, 1965 forwarded the form/s with reference to the 31st March 1965 compiled in accordance with the order Ref. No. ED.DME.1063 dated the 14th May 1964, it shall, not later than the June 15, 1965 submit an additional form/s giving the further particulars which have to be included by reason of the new Order, superseding the said Order.

7. Please attach to this completed form a copy of your latest Balance Sheet and Profit and Loss Account.

Ref. No. ED.DPPR.5631/MRC.95-65—Whereas the Reserve Bank of India considers it expedient to obtain statements, information and particulars relating to deposits from certain companies and is also satisfied that for the purpose of enabling it to regulate the credit system of the country to its advantage it is necessary to obtain statements, information and particulars relating to the business of such companies as hereinafter specified, the Reserve Bank, in exercise of the respective powers conferred by Section 45K and Section 45L of the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934, and in supersession of its directive Ref. No. ED.DME.1063/MRC.95-64, dated May 14, 1964, hereby directs that every company (other than a banking company) which carries on as its principal business hire-purchase transactions or the financing of such transactions shall, in relation to or in connection with any deposits, whether from its shareholders or from any other person or party, received by or in relation to the business of such company where such deposits have been accepted or such business has been carried on by it on or after 31st March 1962, or where any such deposits already accepted have been outstanding on or at any time after 31st March 1962, furnish information and particulars in the forms annexed hereto and as specified therein. The Reserve Bank of India further directs that the said forms duly completed and signed be furnished and continue to be furnished half yearly and yearly as indicated in the said forms, to the Director, Division of Publications and Press Relations, Economic Department, Reserve Bank of India, Post Box No. 1036, Bombay-1, not later than the date specified in the relative forms.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. For the purpose of this return, details of all shares, debentures and other securities whether held on investment account or stock in trade should be given.

2. Investments in shares and debentures of companies are to be grouped according to the principal business of the company concerned. Kindly supply on a separate sheet the scrip-wise details of investments in shares and debentures.

3. Amounts should be rounded to the nearest thousand and three zeros omitted. Thus, an amount of Rs. 4,560 should be shown as 5 and not as 4.6 or 5,000.

4. In part A of the return, the face value for partly paid shares should be the amount paid-up as on March 31 of the relevant year. In case any shares are not quoted on the market, the value as certified by the managing directors or other competent authority should be included under the column 'market value'.

5. In part B, purchase cost or sale proceeds as shown in brokers' contracts (exclusive of transfer fees, stamp duty and brokerage) should be shown. Net investments relate to the net position of purchases minus sales (including redemptions). Depreciation allowed or revaluation of investments made for the purpose of the balance sheet should not be adjusted here. Amounts paid for subscription to new issues (other than rights issues) about which allotment intimation is yet to be received from the company concerned should not be included but shown separately in a footnote at the end of the return.

6. The return should be submitted and continue to be submitted showing the position for each year commencing from 1st April and ending with 31st March. The return for the year ended March 31, 1965 should be submitted not later than June 15, 1965. The subsequent returns should be submitted not later than one month from the date to which they relate.
